

“Sacred” – Joe Melendrez feat. Danielle Rose

You are sacred, you are set apart

You are sacred, you are set apart

Created sacred, made for Greatness

Instead you give up

And give in to all the fakeness

Lost dreams

Words breakin’

The spirits of the living. ah.... I can’t take it

You were made for more

No, you were made to soar

No, you were made to relate & to praise the Lord

Why let go?

You are special

Believe in yourself

See your potential

Then stay devoted

Remain chosen

Let your heart glow for forever this moment

You know He’s been there

You know He’s been where Dignity and honor

Is gone it’s so unfair

But I do care

And God’s right here

He will never leave you

No matter how defeated

No matter how lost or forsaken

Your spirit has meaning

And that’s why you’re set apart for a reason

You are sacred, you are set apart

You are sacred, you are set apart

Misunderstood, not feeling good

There’s so much doubt

Like if you should...

You wonder if

You just quit

What will happen

Will you be missed?

Uhh... yes you will

Here’s the deal

You are alive

And life is what you feel

This is a trying time

But you can make it still

Your purpose is....

What makes you real

So let’s proceed

And walk together

You’re never alone

But forever accepted

God will bring you home

For our time is measured

But we must live on

Let heaven be our treasure

Oh... Pray for all

Who hurt people

Pray for their hearts

That they may be healed

To err is human

To forgive divine

Just trust in God

And you’ll be fine

So different

But who isn’t?

Normal is a word

not a state of existence

What’s missing?

Your mission

Brought into this world

to love and love living

Don’t give in your better than that it will only increase the pain

and never subtract

Get hate off the brain

no time for that

instead develop a plan to rejoice and be glad

You are sacred, you are set apart

You are sacred, you are set apart

Sacred, you are sacred (yeah! believe it)

Sacred, you are sacred (you are wonderfully made)

Sacred, you are sacred (have no fear)

Sacred, you are sacred (believe it... trust)
