Dear Disciples of Jesus,

What a beautiful week of prayer, starting with our stunning Palm Sunday celebrations and continuing through Holy Week. What a privilege to journey and walk with Jesus through His Last Supper, Thursday; passion and death, Friday; and Resurrection, this weekend! We are good people of prayer!

This journey has a name and it is called the Paschal Mystery. You hear reference to it often in our Liturgical prayer and it is noteworthy as it sums up this whole week and the entire saving action of Jesus. The Paschal mystery! Or the Easter Mystery!

Not only is this Paschal mystery part of Jesus' journey, it is also what Jesus promises us, that we too will go through challenges, pain, suffering and death, but also experience resurrections in our lives. We are all very aware of the challenges. How do we keep our eyes fixed on the new life as well? Easter is the season to celebrate Jesus' Resurrection, and also count the resurrections or moments of new life in our own life! They are out there every day waiting for us to notice them! Ultimately, we look forward to the new life that only Jesus can offer us in heaven.

This Easter, may I ask that you seriously consider a significant Easter gift to our Queen of Apostles Parish? You were very generous at Christmas, and deeply generous during the Annual Catholic Appeal. I pray that once again you keep in mind the great needs of our Parish! We can only do this together! Would you consider a gift of $200 for Easter? Or if that amount is easily achievable, a more significant gift? Last fiscal year saw our Parish and school both in deficit. While our school will be in the black this year, our Parish books are not on track to be in the black. Can you help reverse that trajectory this Easter? Profound gratitude for all you do!

Profound thanks to all those who worked so diligently on our liturgies this past week, and over the Lenten Season. Specifically, our Liturgy leads, Fr. Michael and Stuart Thompson. Thank you so much! To all the leads of our ministries in English and Spanish, too numerous to mention! Thank you so much! To all our choirs, Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Servers, Ushers, and Sacristans, profound thank you! And to our Holy Week gurus, Rachel and Jim Hohner, Thank you! It is no small task to get hundreds of people all moving in the same direction and you all did it! Profound gratitude.

In the service of Jesus,
Fr. Jason

Queridos discípulos de Jesús,

Qué hermosa semana de oración, comenzando con nuestras impresionantes celebraciones del Domingo de Ramos y continuando a través de la Semana Santa. Qué privilegio viajar y caminar con Jesús a través de Su Última Cena, Jueves; Pasión y Muerte, Viernes; y Resurrección, ¡este fin de semana! ¡Somos buenas personas de oración!

Este viaje tiene un nombre y se llama el Misterio Pascual. A menudo se oye hablar de ella en nuestra oración litúrgica y es digna de mención, ya que resume toda esta semana y toda la acción salvífica de Jesús. ¡El Misterio Pascual! ¡O el Misterio de Pascua! Este misterio pascual no solo es parte del camino de Jesús, sino que también es lo que Jesús nos promete, que nosotros también pasaremos por desafíos, dolor, sufrimiento y muerte, pero también experimentaremos resurrecciones en nuestras vidas. Todos somos muy conscientes de los desafíos. ¿Cómo mantenemos nuestros ojos fijos en la nueva vida también? La Pascua es el tiempo para celebrar la Resurrección de Jesús, ¡y también para contar las resurrecciones o momentos de nueva vida en nuestra propia vida! ¡Están ahí todos los días esperando que nos fijemos en ellos! En última instancia, esperamos con ansias la nueva vida que solo Jesús puede ofrecernos en el cielo.

En esta Pascua, ¿puedo pedirles que consideren seriamente un regalo significativo de Pascua para nuestra Parroquia Reina de los Apóstoles? Fuiste muy generoso en Navidad, y profundamente generoso durante la Campaña Católica Anual. ¡Rezo para que una vez más tengan en cuenta las grandes necesidades de nuestra parroquia! ¡Solo podemos hacer esto juntos! ¿Considerarías un regalo de $200 para Pascua? O si esa cantidad es fácilmente alcanzable, ¿un regalo más significativo? El año fiscal pasado, nuestra parroquia y nuestra escuela tuvieron déficit. Si bien nuestra escuela estará en números negros este año, nuestros libros parroquiales no están en camino de estar en números negros. ¿Puedes ayudar a revertir esa trayectoria esta Semana Santa? ¡Profunda gratitud por todo lo que haces!

Un profundo agradecimiento a todos los que trabajaron tan diligentemente en nuestras liturgias la semana pasada y durante el tiempo de Cuaresma. Específicamente, nuestra Liturgia lidera, el P. Michael y Stuart Thompson. ¡Muchas gracias! A todos los líderes de nuestros ministerios en inglés y español, ¡demasiado numerosos para mencionarlos! ¡Muchas gracias!

A todos nuestros coros, Ministros Eucarísticos Extraordinarios, Lectores, Servidores, Ujieres y Sacristanes, ¡profundamente gracias! Y a nuestros gurús de la Semana Santa, Rachel y Jim Hohner, ¡Gracias! ¡No es tarea fácil conseguir que cientos de personas se muevan en la misma dirección y todos ustedes lo hicieron! Profunda gratitud.

Al servicio de Jesús,
P. Jasón

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DEPAUL

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them Easter hope and joy.

SOCIEDAD DE SAN VICENTE DE PAÚL

Hoy mientras celebramos la Fiesta de Pascua debemos descubrir el reto de también ver y creer en la Resurrección que viene dentro de nuestras vidas de sacrificio, que nos ayuda traer Nueva Vida a otros.

Cuando pongas tu regalo en la Caja Pobre de La Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, reconoce que eres un signo del amor de Dios para aquellos quienes están sufriendo pobreza y tu caridad les da esperanza y alegría Pascual.

Fellow Missionary Disciples:

We in the Mission Office are eternally grateful for your donation of $1,346.00 through the Missionary Cooperation Plan. Your willingness to welcome missionaries in your parish, listen to their stories, and respond with generosity is a true sign of gospel love and missionary spirit.

The missionaries supported through this initiative depend on your contributions in their work to proclaim the Good News of Jesus in our world, especially among those facing poverty, turmoil, and persecution. They walk alongside the vulnerable and marginalized, respond to spiritual and material needs, and build bonds of love among communities in conflict. Now, with your contributions, they do these things in knowledge that you stand with them as fellow members of the Body of Christ.

90 percent of every donation through the summer Missionary Co-op directly supports missionaries in their work. The remaining 10 percent supports the operations of the Mission Office, on whom missionaries from across the globe rely to build connections with supporters like you within the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Thank you for joining us in continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in our world!

Sincerely,

Megan C. Mio, Director and Irene Acevedo-Gonzalez, Bookkeeper

Compañeros Discípulos Misioneros:

Nosotros en la Oficina de Misiones estamos eternamente agradecidos por su donación de $1,346.00 a través del Plan de Cooperación Misionera. Su disposición a acoger a los misioneros en su parroquia, escuchar sus historias y responder con generosidad es un verdadero signo de amor evangélico y espíritu misionero.

Los misioneros apoyados a través de esta iniciativa dependen de sus contribuciones en su trabajo para proclamar las Buenas Nuevas de Jesús en nuestro mundo, especialmente entre aquellos que enfrentan pobreza, agitación y persecución. Caminan junto a los vulnerables y marginados, responden a las necesidades espirituales y materiales, y construyen lazos de amor entre las comunidades en conflicto. Ahora, con sus contribuciones, ellos hacen estas cosas sabiendo que ustedes están con ellos como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo.

El 90 por ciento de cada donación a través de la Cooperativa Misionera de verano apoya directamente a los misioneros en su trabajo. El 10 por ciento restante apoya las operaciones de la Oficina de Misiones, en la que confían misioneros de todo el mundo para establecer conexiones con partidarios como usted dentro de la Arquidiócesis de Chicago.

¡Gracias por acompañarnos en la continuación de la misión de Jesucristo en nuestro mundo!

Sinceramente,

Megan C. Mio, Directora e Irene Acevedo-González, Contadora

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,
 The resurrection of Jesus stands at the center of our faith. We believe, as Saint Paul says, that Jesus “died for our sins and rose for our justification.” He entered the very darkest corners of human existence, took our pain, suffering, and death upon himself, and then drew us into the fullness of risen life. As we celebrate the Lord’s resurrection this Easter 2024, we are clearly aware of those dark corners of human existence that Jesus took upon himself. With troubled hearts, we watch war and violence unfold in the Holy Land, in Ukraine, in parts of Africa, and in our own city of Chicago. We know the crippling effects of climate change and the natural disasters that have affected so many people throughout the world. We struggle with the social and political polarization that threatens our life together. We step back from all of this, and we can surely affirm that we need the transforming and life-giving power of the Resurrection. We also stand together as a church, a synodal church, that journeys together and reclaim our faith and trust in the power of the Risen Lord who makes all things work for the good for those who love him. We stand together in our often broken and wounded world to witness hope to all humanity, to proclaim that God’s life and not death will have the last word. May this feast of Easter be a graced moment to rediscover and reclaim our great faith and hope in Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, who goes before us and leads us home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cardinal Cupich
 Archbishop of Chicago

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, “Oh my God!” Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out. As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn’t joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn’t peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples’ shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy. We all have our own places of the dead, too, don’t we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our “cemeteries” where we don’t expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare! — Father John Muir

PRAYING FOR AND WITH OUR CHILDREN

Thank you to the parishioners and families who joined us for the Rite of Enrollment Mass for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion at the 9 a.m., 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Masses on Sunday, March 10. Our candidates for First Communion, young people in 2nd Grade and above preparing to receive Jesus in the Eucharist this year through our Catholic schools and Religious Education program, received a blessing and rosaries and prayer books as they formally enter into their preparation with the support of their parents, catechists, and the faith community.

Like past years, we also invite our parish community to continue their prayers in a special way after the Rite. A tree with the candidates’ first names on prayer cards has been placed in the gathering space. Any parishioner is invited to choose a prayer card from the tree to take with you and pray by name for one of these 93 First Communion candidates. We know our community has many prayerful people who could be of great help to our children and youth in this simple yet profound way. Thank you!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Even as the disciples saw the empty tomb and the discarded burial cloths, they did not understand what had happened. But they kept faith, trusting that the Lord was at work. Let us keep that same faith when we do not find God where we expect Him to be.

Estimadas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo:

La resurrección de Jesús se encuentra en el centro de nuestra fe. Creemos, como dice San Pablo, que Jesús “murió por nuestros pecados y resucitó para nuestra justificación”. Él entró en los rincones más oscuros de la existencia humana, asumió nuestro dolor, sufrimiento y muerte y luego nos atrajo a la plenitud de la vida resucitada. Al celebrar la resurrección del Señor en esta Pascua de 2024, somos claramente conscientes de esos rincones oscuros de la existencia humana que Jesús asumió. Con el corazón apesadumbrado observamos la guerra y la violencia desarrollarse en Tierra Santa, en Ucrania, en partes de África y en nuestra propia ciudad de Chicago. Conocemos los efectos devastadores del cambio climático y los desastres naturales que han afectado a tantas personas en todo el mundo. Luchamos contra la polarización social y política que amenaza nuestra vida juntos. Nos apartamos de todo esto y podemos afirmar con seguridad que necesitamos el poder transformador y vivificante de la Resurrección. También estamos unidos como Iglesia, una Iglesia sinodal, que camina junta y reclama nuestra fe y confianza en el poder del Señor Resucitado que hace que todas las cosas obren para el bien de quienes lo aman. Estamos juntos en nuestro mundo, con frecuencia quebrantado y herido, para dar testimonio de esperanza a toda la humanidad, para proclamar que la vida de Dios, y no la muerte, tendrá la última palabra. Que esta fiesta de Pascua sea un momento de gracia para redescubrir y reclamar nuestra gran fe y esperanza en Jesucristo, resucitado de entre los muertos, quien nos precede y nos lleva a casa.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Cardinal Blase Cupich
Arzobispo de Chicago

ORANDO POR Y CON NUESTROS NIÑOS

Gracias a los feligreses y familias que se unieron a nosotros para la Misa del Rito de Matriculación para el Sacramento de la Primera Comunión en las Misas de las 9 a.m., 11 a.m. y 12:30 p.m. el domingo, 10 de marzo. Nuestros candidatos a la Primera Comunión, jóvenes en 2º Grado y superiores preparándose para recibir a Jesús en la Eucaristía este año a través de nuestras escuelas católicas y programa de catecismo, recibieron una bendición, rosarios y libros de oración al entrar formalmente en su preparación con el apoyo de sus padres, catequistas y la comunidad de fe. Al igual que los años pasados, también invitamos a nuestra comunidad parroquial a continuar sus oraciones de una manera especial después del Rito. Un árbol con los nombres de los candidatos en tarjetas de oración se ha colocado en el espacio de reunión. Cualquier feligrés está invitado a elegir una tarjeta de oración del árbol para llevar con usted y orar por su nombre para uno de estos 93 candidatos de la Primera Comunión de nuestra parroquia. Sabemos que nuestra comunidad tiene muchas personas orantes que podrían ser de gran ayuda para nuestros niños y jóvenes de esta manera sencilla pero profunda. ¡Gracias!

WHAT WOULD MARY DO?

This Easter morning, I am thinking of Mary Magdalene. I want to know her state of mind as she approached the tomb in the darkness. Was she afraid? Was she thinking clearly? Was she tired? Had grief and trauma robbed her of her sleep the last two nights? What did she intend to do? Anoint Christ's body, yes — but what else? Kiss his hands, trace the markings where the lash had fallen upon his skin? Say goodbye? Weep? Despair? What were the words she planned to whisper into the cold, empty darkness that morning, as she wept over God's body?

I don't know anything about her state of mind that Easter morning, except that I know she wanted to be with Christ. Perhaps that was all she knew, too. Perhaps she had no other thought, no other desire, than nearness to him. She didn't need to understand everything, and she didn't expect answers — she didn't dare hope for that. But everything and everyone had fallen apart around her, and in Jesus' presence she knew her heart would be able to rest.

If you have ever been in the midst of a crisis in your life and found yourself pacing the floors of your house when no one else is awake, muttering the words to a prayer you know by heart, you know what Mary Magdalene felt. In those moments, we do not always feel God's presence. Sometimes, when we look for Him, we only see an empty tomb.

When these dark moments come, I pray you will remember the faithfulness of this great saint. Be like Mary Magdalene. Look for Jesus, always. You may not always find him, but he will always find you.

"She ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, 'They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him.'" — John 20:2
