

WHITE TABLE: Call to Family, Community and Participation
Ephesians 5:25-6:4

Begin by going through the outline of this teaching from the teal handout.

Why do I think that a “call to family, community and participation” is part of what the Catholic Church teaches?

Then begin looking at the Scripture passage for this theme of the teaching.

Read Ephesians 5:25-6:4. How do the teachings on the “call to family, community and participation” relate to this passage?

CONTINUED ON THE BACK SIDE →

[WHITE Table continued]

Why should I care about family, community and participation?

How does this social teaching relate to being a good Christian?

In what ways do I follow the teaching about the call to family, community and participation?