EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our Lenten Journey Nuestro Viaje Cuaresmal

BY FATHER MICHAEL MERINGER

This coming Wednesday, we begin anew our Lenten journey. Often as lent approaches, various negative emotions may come to us. Prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and repentance don't always stir up in us a feeling of joy and consolation. And yet, we know deep down that this time of year is necessary for the good of our spiritual lives. Just as the thought of spring cleaning brings with it a certain dread at the hard work to come, we know that the outcome can be tremendous. I would like to recommend a spirit of optimism and hope. This year of 2025 has been proclaimed as a Jubilee year of Hope by Pope Francis. And Lent is a time for us to renew that hope. But part of embracing the hope that we have in Jesus Christ is examining how we are doing in following him as Christians. Lent is set as a time for us to have a yearly time to look at the ways that we have let the cares and temptations of the world lessen our hope in Jesus Christ.

El miércoles que viene comenzamos de nuevo nuestro camino cuaresmal. A menudo, a medida que se acerca la cuaresma, pueden llegar a nosotros diversas emociones negativas. La oración, el ayuno, la limosna y el arrepentimiento no siempre despiertan en nosotros un sentimiento de alegría y consuelo. Sin embargo, sabemos en el fondo que este tiempo del año es necesario para el bien de nuestra vida espiritual. Así como la idea de hacer una limpieza de primavera trae consigo cierto temor ante el arduo trabajo que se avecina, sabemos que el resultado puede ser tremendo. Me gustaría recomendar un espíritu de optimismo y esperanza. Este año 2025 ha sido proclamado Año Jubilar de la Esperanza por el Papa Francisco.

Lent is a special season of prayer. We know that we are called to be people deeply rooted in prayer, indeed, to “pray without ceasing” as St. Paul tells us. Lent is a time when we set certain goals of prayer in order to more readily rejoice in the great Easter celebration that comes at its conclusion. There are many ways we can seek to grow in prayer. Finding silent times in our day to be alone with God and share our concerns with Him, praying the rosary, attending mass more frequently, and attending the Stations of the Cross on Fridays are just a few ways that we can embrace more deeply our need for prayer.

We are also called to fast. This is one of the areas that most of us don't look forward to. But it is a great way to cleanse ourselves a bit from the things of this world and remind ourselves that it is God alone that satiates all our deepest desires. We give up certain things as a daily reminder of who our God is, and we unite the slight discomfort that this brings us to the cross of our Lord.

Finally, we seek to be more generous in the ways we offer our time and money for those less fortunate. Almsgiving is just another way to help us become less detached to this world, to be thankful for all that we do have, and to remember that we are destined for Heaven.

I pray that this Lent will be a beautiful occasion of attending to soil of our hearts, that we may all bear good fruit abundantly for our good and the good of the whole world.

Y la Cuaresma es un tiempo para que renovemos esa esperanza. Pero parte de abrazar la esperanza que tenemos en Jesucristo es examinar cómo lo estamos siguiendo como cristianos. La Cuaresma se establece como un tiempo para que tengamos un tiempo anual para observar las formas en que hemos dejado que las preocupaciones y tentaciones del mundo disminuyan nuestra esperanza en Jesucristo.

La Cuaresma es un tiempo especial de oración. Sabemos que estamos llamados a ser personas profundamente arraigadas en la oración, es más, a “orar sin cesar” como nos dice San Pablo. La Cuaresma es un tiempo en el que nos fijamos ciertos objetivos de oración para poder regocijarnos más fácilmente en la gran celebración pascual que llega a su fin. Hay muchas maneras en que podemos buscar crecer en oración. Encontrar momentos de silencio en nuestro día para estar a solas con Dios y compartir nuestras preocupaciones con Él, rezar el rosario, asistir a misa con más frecuencia y asistir al Vía Crucis los viernes, son sólo algunas de las formas en que podemos abrazar más profundamente nuestra necesidad de oración.

También estamos llamados a ayunar. Esta es una de las áreas que la mayoría de nosotros no esperamos. Pero es una excelente manera de limpiarnos un poco de las cosas de este mundo y recordarnos que es solo Dios quien sacia todos nuestros deseos más profundos. Renunciamos a ciertas cosas como recordatorio diario de quién es nuestro Dios, y unimos el ligero malestar que esto nos trae a la cruz de nuestro Señor.

Finalmente, buscamos ser más generosos en la forma en que ofrecemos nuestro tiempo y dinero a los menos afortunados. Dar limosna es simplemente otra forma de ayudarnos a estar menos desapegados de este mundo, a estar agradecidos por todo lo que tenemos y a recordar que estamos destinados al Cielo.

Ruego que esta Cuaresma sea una hermosa ocasión para cuidar la tierra de nuestro corazón, para que todos podamos dar buenos frutos en abundancia para nuestro bien y el del mundo entero.

Today Saint Paul asks us to be “firm steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”

Are you called to do the Lord’s work as a member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Our next meeting is Thursday, March 20 at 7 pm in the Parish Center.

Hoy, San Pablo nos pide que estemos “firmes, perseverantes y entregados por completo a la obra del Señor, sabiendo que vuestro trabajo en el Señor no es en vano”.

¿Estás llamado a hacer la obra del Señor como miembro de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl? Nuestra próxima reunión es el jueves 20 de marzo a las 7 pm en el Centro Parroquial.
