23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"May God abundantly bless the hands, hearts, and efforts of all those whose work helps make our world a better place."

BY REV. JASON MALAVE, QUEEN OF APOSTLES PARISH

Dear Family of Faith,

Welcome back to school, and welcome back to our weekly bulletins! We had been publishing a bulletin every two weeks over the summer, but now, with everything starting up again, we are back to a weekly schedule.

Whether you are in school or not, all of us are energized by the back-to-school season. Whether it's your children, grandchildren, nieces or nephews, other family members, or neighbors, someone is going back to school. As that happens, we begin to reflect on areas where we might need growth: Physically, Intellectually, Emotionally, or Spiritually (P.I.E.S.)

Querida Familia de Fe,

¡Bienvenidos de nuevo a la escuela y bienvenidos de nuevo a nuestros boletines semanales! Durante el verano estuvimos publicando un boletín cada dos semanas, pero ahora, con todo lo que ha comenzado nuevamente, volvemos a nuestra publicación semanal.

Ya sea que ustedes estén en la escuela o no, todos nos sentimos impulsados por la energía del regreso a clases. Ya sean sus hijos, nietos, sobrinos, algún familiar o un vecino, alguien está regresando a la escuela. Cuando eso sucede, comenzamos a reflexionar sobre dónde podríamos necesitar crecer: Física, Intelectual, Emocional o Espiritualmente (P.I.E.S.).

From a spiritual perspective, I invite us to consider the opportunities we receive to grow in our faith. Whether it is Alpha or a small faith group, both beginning in October, or a ministry or service opportunity, we need to find ways that help us live out our discipleship. Either we are growing as Jesus' disciples, or we are becoming stagnant in our discipleship.

This back-to-school season is also when our Adult Sacramental Preparation Classes begin. On September 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Center, we will begin our OCIA classes, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Every year, a small faith community comes together to accompany one another on the journey toward the Sacraments of Initiation. Do you know someone who has been thinking about coming into the Catholic faith? Could you invite them to attend and check out at least the first session on September 14? Your invitation might be exactly what they need to begin the journey.

From the perspective of our younger parishioners, I pray that everyone keeps an eye out for children who are not attending Catholic schools. Our Religious Education program is ready and waiting for your children, grandchildren, or neighbors' children. Can you give them a reminder, an invitation, or a little encouragement? Sometimes we all need a gentle reminder from one another.

Please know that we will also offer a teen OCIA program for teenagers who are seeking to complete their Sacraments of Initiation. Please remember that any child with a developmental disability is eligible for one of our three adult SPRED groups or a younger SPRED group at a neighboring parish. Now is the time to register!

Also starting up are our new Parish Council and Finance Council. If anyone is interested in serving, please let me know. And, of course, our Harvest Jam is just two weeks away! Be sure to purchase your presale tickets for admission, food, and beverages to avoid the lines.

- Fr. Jason

Desde una perspectiva espiritual, los invito a pensar en las oportunidades para crecer en nuestra fe. Ya sea Alpha, un pequeño grupo de fe que comenzará en octubre, o algún ministerio o servicio, necesitamos encontrar maneras que nos ayuden a vivir nuestro discipulado. O estamos creciendo como discípulos de Jesús, o estamos estancados en nuestro discipulado.

Esta temporada de regreso a clases también comienzan nuestras clases para adultos que desean recibir los sacramentos. El 14 de septiembre a las 7:30 p.m. en el Centro Parroquial comenzaremos nuestras clases de OCIA, la Orden de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos. Cada año, un pequeño grupo de fe se reúne para acompañarse mutuamente en el camino hacia los Sacramentos de Iniciación. ¿Conocen a alguien que haya estado pensando en entrar a la fe católica? ¿Podrían invitarlo a asistir a la primera sesión el 14 de septiembre? Su invitación podría ser lo que necesita para comenzar el camino.

Desde la perspectiva de nuestros niños y jóvenes, espero que todos estén atentos a aquellos niños que no asisten a escuelas católicas. Nuestro programa de Educación Religiosa está listo y esperando a sus hijos, nietos o a los hijos de sus vecinos. ¿Pueden darles un recordatorio, una invitación o una palabra de ánimo? A veces todos necesitamos el apoyo y recordatorio de los demás.

También ofreceremos OCIA para adolescentes que buscan completar sus Sacramentos de Iniciación. Recuerden que cualquier niño con una discapacidad del desarrollo es elegible para participar en uno de nuestros tres grupos SPRED para adultos o en un grupo SPRED para niños en una parroquia vecina. ¡Ahora es el momento de inscribirse!

También comenzaran el nuevo Consejo Parroquial y Consejo de Finanzas. Si alguien está interesado en participar, por favor háganmelo saber. Y, por supuesto, ¡nuestro Harvest Jam en dos semanas! ¡Compre sus boletos de preventa para la entrada, alimentos y bebidas y así evitar las filas!

- Padre Jason
