

QUEEN OF ANGELS CHURCH
AND ST MATTHIAS CHURCH

Annual Report

JULY 1
2025
THROUGH
JUNE 30,
2026

Dear Disciples of Jesus,

This past year, I felt myself and others settling into our new normal, post pandemic, post pastor change, and post structural transitions. For myself and perhaps for you, there was a settling into identity as Queen of Apostles Parish. It has taken a long time, however, we now all claim our Parish with two Churches, two school and two languages! I know for me, Queen of Apostles is rolling off my tongue a little easier as we plan for our future!

With six years under our belt as a Queen of Apostles Parish, and now pushing into our seventh year, I can see how we have grown, learned new names, attracted new parishioners, formed new ministry, all the while, building on the traditions of two former parishes. I admire everyone's patience with each other, with me, and with our building a new Parish process. In the Archdiocese, we join others in forming a new Parish, but each new Parish has its peaks and valleys, gifts and challenges. Again, thank you for your patience and perseverance.

In our Annual Report, please make sure to read the short successes listed in each of the seven areas of Parish life. Great things are happening and, in Jesus' name, we have to keep sharing the good news. May Jesus help us grow closer to each other, closer to our neighbors and closer to our Generous God!

Fr. Jason Malave

Queridos discípulos de Jesús:

Este último año, sentí que tanto yo como muchos otros nos fuimos adaptando a nuestra nueva realidad: después de la pandemia, del cambio de párroco y de las transiciones estructurales. Para mí, y quizás también para ustedes, fue un tiempo para asumir nuestra identidad como la Parroquia Reina de los Apóstoles. Nos ha tomado tiempo, pero ahora todos reconocemos como nuestra esta parroquia con dos iglesias, dos escuelas y dos idiomas. Sé que, al menos para mí, decir "Reina de los Apóstoles" sale con más naturalidad mientras seguimos planeando nuestro futuro.

Con seis años de historia como Parroquia Reina de los Apóstoles y entrando en nuestro séptimo año, puedo ver cómo hemos crecido, conocido nuevas personas, atraído a nuevos feligreses y formado nuevos ministerios, mientras seguimos construyendo sobre las tradiciones de dos antiguas parroquias. Admiro la paciencia que todos han tenido unos con otros, conmigo y con el proceso de construir una nueva parroquia. Una vez más, gracias por su paciencia y perseverancia.

En nuestro Informe Anual, los invito a leer los logros destacados en cada una de las siete áreas de la vida parroquial. Están ocurriendo cosas maravillosas y, en el nombre de Jesús, debemos seguir compartiendo la Buena Nueva. Que Jesús nos ayude a acercarnos más unos a otros, a nuestros vecinos y a nuestro Dios generoso.

EVANGELIZATION MINISTRY

Today’s culture and current ethos demand that now, more than ever, each one of us grow more comfortable in sharing why we call ourselves Christians, or followers of Jesus. Through evangelization efforts, we answer for ourselves the big questions like: Why do we follow Jesus? How does Jesus’ death and resurrection have an impact on my life? With more Catholics outside the celebration of Mass than inside, each one of us grows more comfortable in our Christian Catholic skin and able to share or answer those important questions of faith!

This past summer ten small faith groups were formed, half in English and half in Spanish, to help adults grow together in faith and share openly about their faith. Are you being called to a small faith group?

CATHOLIC EDUCATION MINISTRY

Our Catholic Education ministry - through Queen of Angels School and St. Matthias School - is central to our parish. Our schools not only educate with academic excellence but also nurture faith, service, character, and a deep sense of belonging. Catholic education here is more than a tradition- its's a shared mission that strengthens our Parish and helps shape future leaders grounded in love and compassion.

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Our worship community gathers through vibrant liturgies where the lay-people of our Parish play a vital role. At Sunday Masses and special celebrations, lay ministers, altar servers, lectors, cantors, Eucharistic ministers, and ushers support the liturgy, enriching the prayer experience. Music and decor reflect the cultural richness of both English and Spanish communities. This shared participation fosters unity and spiritual growth, deepening our faith and commitment as we journey together in discipleship and love for God and neighbor.

CATECHESIS MINISTRY

Our parish supports each person's faith journey from birth through all life stages. Rooted in the Church's sacramental life, we offer comprehensive catechetical programs which go beyond sacramental preparation to enable meaningful participation in liturgy, prayer and service. Our catechetical ministries are committed to living the Gospel with compassion and integrity in order to be companions to children, teens, and adults in growing as disciples of Jesus Christ. Our SPRED ministry welcomes individuals with intellectual disabilities into small communities of friendship and respect where all gain a deeper awareness of God in their lives and celebrate the sacraments with inclusion and reverence.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

The Grief Ministry provides a caring space for those experiencing loss. Through prayer, conversation, and support, participants find comfort among others who understand grief.

At our Parish, we celebrate the diverse ways different nationalities witness Jesus, each contributing unique cultural traditions that enrich our spiritual life. Through prayer groups, novenas, and the rosary, members experience the living presence of Jesus in daily life. Ministries like Grief Support offer compassion and connection for those in need. At Queen of Apostles, spiritual life thrives, nurturing our journey with Christ and fostering a vibrant, supportive parish community.

PARISH LIFE

Beyond our Sunday Mass, a good number of groups and events are gathered into the title Parish Life that remind us that our Spiritual Life is first, and our fellowship follows right after! Gathering parishioners at different stages of life, Parish life groups foster fellowship and growing in faith together. Parish-wide events invite our entire community to celebrate, serve and connect, creating a strong and dynamic Parish spirit. Perhaps one of these Parish Life groups or events is call your name to get to know people and offer your leadership!

OUTREACH MINISTRY

At our parish, Catholic outreach is grounded in the belief that every person deserves dignity and compassionate care. We are committed to serving those in need -- whether they face poverty, illness, or addiction -- by offering support that restores hope and affirms their worth. Our outreach ministries embody the Church's call to uphold the dignity of life. A powerful example of this faith in practice is our Community Meal program, which shares Jesus' care for the poor by providing nourishing meals and fostering a spirit of welcome and compassion. Through these efforts, we build a stronger, more caring community where all are valued and supported
